

LeRoy and Livonia Games Tough Cage Foes Await Mustangs

Dansville High's basketball team, reeling from three straight losses, must now face the two top teams in the Livingston Conference Division One standings.

Couch Jim DeBell's Mustangs will play at LeRoy Friday night and go against unbeaten Livonia there Tuesday night.

Dansville dropped a 77-60 decision at Bath Tuesday night as the winners converted 28 of 36 foul shots to provide the margin. DCHS outshot Bath 27-20 from the floor but managed only six of 16 at the line.

Last week, the Mustangs pressed undefeated Genesee to the wire before losing in the final seconds by a 57-52 count. Dansville was thumped 98-38 at Avon Friday night.

The first spelled the difference in the Bath game. The hosts jumped off to a 20-8 first quarter advantage and led throughout. It was 41-28 at the half and 60-43 going into the final period.

Mike Wamp with 20 and Dave

Hamsher with 16 paced Dansville. Adding to the point total were Bob Mahus with seven, Brad West with six, Jeff Jaeger with five, Ken Keppen, Ed French and Roy Alford, each with two.

At Genesee, the Blue Devils fronted 17-16 at the quarter but Dansville came back for a 29-28 halftime lead. Genesee was up 43-42 at the three quarter mark and scored twice in the final minute to seal the win. Mahus with 22 points and Wamp with 18 were high for the Mustangs. Also scoring were Hamsher with four, Jaeger, Ken Heiman, West and Dan Hoerner, each with two.

Scoring for DCHS at Avon were Mahus with nine, Keppen with eight, Hamsher, Wamp and Pat Byrnes, each with four, French with three, Hoerner and Jaeger, each with two. Avon rolled to a 25-7 lead at the quarter, pulled away to a 49-19 halftime lead and added another 49 points in the second half.
